The Woman's Club of Concord ("the Club") / Chamberlin House ("the House") is not liable for any injury incurred by any person attending an event during rental of the House. There is no smoking inside the House and no hard liquor may be served. Renters are responsible for any damage done to the property or its contents during their rental period. The renter agrees to indemnify the Club for any and all liability or damages the Club may sustain as a result of the acts of any person, negligent or intentional, causing damage to any person or property during any rental of the House. Any damage should be reported to the house scheduler.

I agree to these terms and conditions and to the rules outlined in the guidelines for the use of the House.
